

2020 ANZAC Appeal sub-Branch process and information sheet

Following sub-Branch and Auxiliary feedback, changes are being made to how the 2020 ANZAC Appeal will be conducted.

This ANZAC Appeal, sub-Branches will not be fundraising on behalf of RSL DefenceCare. Instead, sub-Branches who conduct their own local activity will keep all net funds raised.

Token stock

ANZAC House is offering the opportunity to purchase stock items through its approved supplier, PMA Global, who are offering significantly discounted charity rates for the RSL NSW sub-Branch network.

If you prefer, you may also purchase stock from the Military Shop, who offer an RSL wholesale price. Please note that Military Shop items are not tax-deductible.

The below process explains how you can register and take part in the 2020 ANZAC Appeal using PMA Global as your supplier.
